- The Honorable Allen D. Biehler, Secretary, PA Department of Transportation
- Environmental Permitting Issues
- TMI Generator Move
 - Follow the two 510-ton generators as they made their 20-day trek from Port Deposit, Md. on their way to the Three Mile Island nuclear power plant. Specially built trucks, each with 26 pairs of axles and 6 diesel engines, hauled the generators at a pace of 3 to 5 mph. Learn how the cooperating agencies (including the Coast Guard) dealt with challenges involving environmental issues, structures, utilities, and right-of-way.

Advertise in the Fall issue of HIGHWAY BUILDER magazine and you can list your booth number in your ad, as well as have the page number of your ad next to your name in the Exhibitor's List (booths must be purchased prior to September 24 to be included in the Fall issue listing). It's a great way to show your support of APC, bring people to your booth at the show, and get your name/logo recognized. Contact Mark Wolf at Triad (800)288-7423 - mwolf@triad-inc.com. Visit www.hwbyldr.com for rates. ADVERTISING DEADLINE IS OCTOBER 1.

SPECIAL OFFER

DEADLINE TO ADVERTISE IS OCTOBER 22, 2010!

Informal Interaction Reception Sponsorship

One of the highlights of the Annual APC/PennDOT Fall Seminar is the Thursday evening, November 18, "Informal Interaction" reception. APC members will once again have the opportunity to help support this event through company sponsorships. Keep in mind, nearly 1,300 APC members and PennDOT representatives are expected to register for the Seminar!

Sponsorships are available for $275. With your sponsorship, your company will receive special recognition at the Informal Interaction Reception and will be appropriately recognized in the Seminar program, by signage at the event, on the APC website, and in HIGHWAY BUILDER magazine.

Please submit your check with the form below and a copy of your company's logo for the presentation during the reception. (If you were a sponsor last year, indicate below if you would like us to use the same logo).

- Enclosed is our photo-ready company logo
- I am sending my logo electronically
